

How cloud connectivity impacts your business

With the increase of enterprises migrating business-critical applications to the cloud, the need for a secure and reliable cloud networking experience is more important than ever.

Throughput
65%

of businesses can't get the best out of their cloud platform due to throughput limitations

Security 80%

of companies consider limited security on cloud connectivity a serious threat

What cloud challenges do businesses face?*

Reliability
60%

of cloud services don't deliver business value due to unreliable access connectivity

Latency
70%

of Enterprises suffer from cloud access latency issues for their mission critical applications

Create the experience your business needs with Colt Cloud Access Solutions

Direct Cloud Access

Protected backbone with diversity options

100 Gbps
guaranteed throughput per connection

Deterministic shortest route latency guaranteed

Secure dedicated connection with encryption option

Internet Access with Cloud Prioritisation

17
direct Microsoft peering points

Reserved
bandwidth end-to-end for Microsoft traffic

<30ms roundtrip to Office 365 and Azure

Cybersecurity Services
Managed Firewall, DDoS Mitigation, Secure Network Gateway

High Performance Internet Access

400+ Gbps
of multiple redundant peerings

100%
guaranteed uncontended bandwidth

<60ms average roundtrip guaranteed

Direct Cloud Access
Internet Access with Cloud Prioritisation
High Performance Internet Access

Want to know more?
www.colt.net | sales@colt.net

*Source: IDC - The State of Cloud Adoption and Security